

Everyone wants to be part of an effective team at work, at home or in a service organization, but human problems often hinder our realizing the dream:

Personality clashes. They happen when you can't stand another person, however you try.

Lack of working together. The right hand doesn't know what the left is doing—everyday circumstances can cause confusion.

The right person in the wrong place leads to hopelessness and conflict on the group.

Lack of communication leads to effort without effectiveness, to waste and to situations where the question is asked: "Why didn't anybody tell me that?"

Team-Building Seminar is one of several seminars which are offered through LifeQuality International. Each seminar is led by one or more of our specially-trained facilitators.

LifeQuality International
121 N Main Street
Souderton, PA, 18964
+1-215-723-1100

greg@lifequalitynetwork.org
www.lifequalitynetwork.org

Team-Building Seminar

Developing an effective team leads to more enjoyable and productive work!

“Team-building” is an exciting 8–10 hour seminar which answers questions like these:

What are the characteristics of an effective team?

You learn how it is possible to achieve success in teams, in the company or organization.

What is necessary to building an effective team?

With the help of a personality inventory you learn how to maximize the strengths of each individual on the team. You also learn how to develop compatibility and to develop your versatility in order to meet the needs of others.

What are the personal needs of those in your group and what effect will they have?

With the help of another instrument you’ll learn about your own emotional needs and the needs of others, what effect they have on working together and how you can create a positive atmosphere at work by seeking to better meet those needs.

How can the team leader provide the group with supportive leadership?

Leaders will learn to achieve and maintain a motivational environment and use the right leadership style for the right situation.